Citizens Plan New Home For Local Fire Victims

"It's hard to believe," Mrs. James Walton stammered today when she was told by a reporter from THE RECORD that plans were already in motion to build her "hard-luck" family a new home.

The Waltons were victims of a disastrous fire Tuesday night that completely destroyed their home at 108 Knowles avenue. Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy estimated that damage reached $9000 and said that the Waltons carried no insurance to cover their losses.

Fire broke out at 8 p.m. Tuesday night only a few minutes after the Waltons and four of their six children had left the house.

"We were just half a block away when we saw the smoke, and turned back to see where the fire was," Mrs. Walton declared. "We had no idea the fire was at our own home until we turned the corner."

Boys Report Blaze
First notice of the blaze came from two youngsters who rushed to the corner and turned in a fire alarm upon seeing the flames. The boys were Arthur McMullan, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McMullan of 128 Los Olivos avenue, and Roy David Ferrando, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Davis of 120-B Los Olivos avenue.

About 20 firemen responded to the call, but the fire completely gutted the wooden structure in a period of 10 minutes despite efforts to save the house. One injury was reported when Captain Frank Specht stepped on a nail which drove through his foot.

Cause of the blaze is unknown

Donati And Mrs. Hammel Enter Not Guilty Pleas

Not guilty pleas were entered in municipal court yesterday (Thursday) by Dino Donati and Marie Y. Hammel, both of whom are charged with bookmaking and conspiracy. Preliminary hearing was scheduled for May 31.

Thomas Jenkins of Broadmoor, attorney for Donati, announced in court that he will withdraw from the case. He will be replaced by James M. MacInnis, well-known San Francisco criminal lawyer.

Donati, 36, 19 Castlemont, turned himself into Daly City police May 3 after Mrs. Hammel, 47, 1171 Brunswick street, was arrested in a raid on her home the previous day. At that time Mrs. Hammel charged that she was only an employee of Donati in the alleged $1000 a day bookmaking business.

Picked up the same day as his wife by treasury agents was Mrs. Hammel's husband, Frank, who is employed at Hunter's Point Naval station. Hammel was charged with failure to purchase a federal wagering stamp. United States District Attorney Deputy Richard Foster said today that he expects to bring Hammel before the federal grand jury for indictment within a week.

Donati is free on $3000 bail, while Mrs. Hammel and her husband are at liberty on $500 cash and $1000 bond, respectively.

In other municipal court action yesterday:

Robert Droze, 136 Sagamore street, San Francisco, paid a fine of $50 after he pleaded guilty to a disturbing the peace charge here May 5.

Joy Sells, 737 Bellevue, forfeited $25 bail paid after arrested here May 10 on a charge of being drunk in a public place.

Elna J. Briscoe, 1125 Fourth street, San Francisco, forfeited $25 bail paid here after arrested here May 5 on a charge of being drunk in a public place.

Frank Carney, 89 Teresa street, pleaded guilty to drunk driving on Geneva avenue, San Francisco, on May 5. He paid a $150 fine.

Stephen Slahavan, 2236 15th street, San Francisco, forfeited a $50 fine paid here after he was arrested on a disturbing the peace count May 7.

Planners Deny Rezoning In Westlake Area

Henry Doelger's petition for a rezoning in Westlake Unit 3 which would have placed apartment houses adjacent to a residential area was turned down unanimously by the city planning commission Wednesday night after a two-hour hearing before some 100 irate Westlake residents.

The decision came, however, after Commissioner Julian Cohn delivered a quiet but stern rebuke against the homeowners attorney, Hartley Appleton, and others in the audience for intimating that the commission "was stacked" at a meeting last week.

Doelger sought to rezone 204 feet of land south of South Mayfair avenue and east of Fairway from R-1 (residential) to R-3 (multiple dwelling) to make way for an apartment house development.

Cites Argument
Appleton had charged that the apartments would decrease value of each nearby residence about $1000, would create a traffic and police problem, and would result in further crowding of the schools.

Doelger was represented by Attorney Bernard Etcheverry, who argued that actually the rezoning would be a buffer of two homes between the present homes and the apartment. He explained that the geography of the area prohibited construction of homes.

After long argument, Etcheverry said he might be able to talk to Doelger about a compromise, but the homeowners indicated they were absolutely opposed to having any apartments located in that area.

At one point in the meeting, Appleton repeated statements made last week that "There are rumors Doelger gets what he wants. It's an awful thing to have to stomach. People told me we'd be wasting our time by coming before the commission as it was already decided."

Chairman George Pingry explained the commission was only a recommending body.

"Disturbs Me"
"It disturbs me to hear Appleton talk this way," Etcheverry declared. "Instead of asking the commission for a fair break, he's asking the commission to lean over the opposite way."

Etcheverry said he thought Appleton's argument in the back of his mind was a "dog in the man" (Continued on Page 2)

DALY CITY HOLDS SPRING CLEANUP

Next week, Monday through Saturday, the Daly City Scavenger company will hold its annual Spring Clean-up, a free pick-up service.

Waste materials in the clean-up category should be placed out with garbage on the night before the regular pick-up, according to Al Sereni, Scavenger president. Bundles should be tied securely, and be no larger than 30 pounds. Lumber should be cut into lengths of not more than three feet.

Rocks, dirt and cement will not be accepted, Sereni said.

Daly City fire chief Elmer Kennedy joined in the clean-up campaign by urging everyone to "take advantage of this opportunity to rid your homes of fire hazards such as old furniture, rags, paper, discarded clothing and old paint cans."

The chief said "with a little effort in getting things together and placing them where your garbage man can pick them up, you will be making your home a safer place in which to live."

He stated that many fires start where no one is home in corners where discarded materials are stored.

COUNCIL IN MOVE TO FORCE SELMI INTO FULL-TIME DUTIES

First move in an apparent showdown to get City Treasurer Paul Selmi to assume his duties on a full-time basis was made by the city council Monday.

The council unanimously passed a resolution eliminating the salary of the deputy treasurer and account clerk, Selmi's aide, and set aside $675.56 to provide for Selmi's increase in salary until the new fiscal year starts July 1. As a part-time job, the city treasurer position had paid $75 a month, but in making the job full time the council raised the salary to $400.

Under the old ordinance, Selmi's deputy was paid with city funds, but Monday night's ruling eliminates a salary for his assistant, effective Tuesday.

According to Mayor Joseph Verducci, if Selmi refuses to take the job on a full-time basis, the council will take him to court and force him to assume his duties. "He ran for the job knowing it was full-time and if he doesn't devote full time to it, he has taken the job under false pretenses," the mayor declared.

Verducci said it was all right for Selmi to have deputies, but that he would have to pay them from his own salary and would still have to be available at the treasurer's offices in city hall.

$7000 Damage As Three Westlake Homes Settle

Henry Doelger workmen were busy today installing concrete piers to moor down three homes on Lake Meadow drive that settled up to 10 inches in the wake of recent heavy rains.

Total damage has been estimated at $7000.

Residents of the three homes, 18, 24 and 30 Lake Meadow, have been moved out until the work is completed. The James Pigott family, who had lived at the 24 Lake Meadow address, the most badly damaged home, departed on April 20.

George Frecker was listed as the owner of the No. 18 home, while No. 30 is in the name of Henry Doelger, Builder, Inc.

The No. 24 home was cracked about half-way up and the living room settled from eight to ten inches.

The concrete piers are being installed deeper in the ground where more solid footing can be found.

Lake Meadow is within a block of the Vista Del Mar school site, where this winter a huge piece of ground off Bradley drive gave way, leaving a home standing on the edge of a precipice.

According to report of an engineer, the ground that settled was compacted enough.

Mayors Back Sales Tax; No Definite Commitments

Representatives of San Mateo and Santa Clara county cities kicked around the one-cent sales tax idea Tuesday at a special meeting of the Peninsula Division, League of California Cities, but came to no definite conclusions.

And the general consensus of those present was that it would be a good thing for the cities, but no one city wanted to be the first to initiate the action.

Mayor Joseph Verducci, who represented Daly City along with City Manager Howard Stites and Councilman Del Wilson, expressed the point that this hesitant attitude would stymie the whole program. Verducci said that unless San Mateo county cities found forms of revenue other than property taxes and bond issues, they would fall behind other California cities in capital improvements.

Almost every one of the mayors or representatives of municipalities spoke in favor of the sales tax, but none of the spokesmen would commit their city as the first to legislate the special levy.

Should the cities fail to levy the tax, the county may set the one-cent tax and allocate the cities only a small portion of the revenue.

The board of equalization has estimated that Daly City would receive over $200,000 annually from the one-cent levy.

The League did not take any formal action on the sales tax proposition, but decided to hold one more special meeting on the issue June 12 before going to the county supervisors with any proposal.

Attempted recall of Daly City councilmen Sanford Vickers, Micheal De Bernardi and Del Wilson was defeated roundly yesterday, with each councilman holding approximately a 700-vote advantage in his favor.

A surprising expression from Westlake against Daly City's first recall was the factor that swayed the election in favor of three councilmen, who had been targets of the Better Government for Daly City Group, led by City Treasurer Paul Selmi.

In some Westlake precincts, the "no" votes against recall topped the "yes" balloting by as much as six to one.

A total of 4046 voters turned out for the special election, a high figure considering the regular municipal election was held just one month ago, April 10. This turnout amounted to about 36 per cent of the 10,977 persons eligible to vote.

At the April 10 election, 6200, or 56 per cent of the voters, turned out, but this was an unusually high balloting.

Tentative figures compiled by the City Clerk showed the following results: De Bernardi—1669 yes, 2330 no; Vickers—1629 yes, 2351 no; Wilson—1667 yes, 2320 no.

Election, 4 to 1

Because the recall was defeated, the question on the ballot of whether vacancies should be filled by appointment or special election had no bearing. However, the voters were approximately four to one for making replacements by a special election, with 746 for appointment, 2700 for election.

Only in the Crocker tract of Daly City did the recall poll a wide margin. In precinct B the "yes" votes led, 95-48, while in precinct E it was 117 to 54 in favor of the recall. In the remainder of the eastern Daly City precincts the recall held fairly substantial margins, although it was defeated two to one in a few of the older voting areas.

The group which sought recall of the three councilmen had charged them with "disregard of the rights and wishes of the people, sanctioning questionable bidding procedures and permitting violation of legally required fiscal procedures."

Ballots will be canvassed at Monday night's meeting of the council.

After receiving the vote of confidence, the councilmen made the following statements.

Vickers—"I am pleased with the results. I feel very confident now that the council, without any more animosity, will get down to business and do what we think is right (Continued on Page 3)

JEFF ELEMENTARY TEACHERS ASK 9% PAY INCREASE

Request for a 9.78 per cent pay increase was made Monday night by the Jefferson elementary school district teachers and administrators. If granted, the raise would add $83,308 to the $853,502 already budgeted for salaries, it was estimated by Fred Schweickhardt, salary committee chairman.

The teachers' proposed schedule incorporates a $4000 minimum and $7030 maximum salary. Present schedule includes a $3795 minimum and $6480 maximum.

Following a five-hour session of the board in which Trustees Michael Callan and Hartley Appleton tossed innumerable questions on innumerable subjects at the teachers, the board voted to table the salary matter until next Wednesday's regular meeting.

Cut Asked
In the meantime, Schweickhardt was asked by the board to cut $16,000 off the proposed schedule. Appleton recommended that teachers bring their suggested pay increase closer to the schedule recently approved by the neighboring Laguna Salada district. Aside from the general pay raise (Continued on Page 3) when he was No. 13 to vote at his precinct, but it turned out otherwise.

For what reason we know not, the northern district municipal court has no money for advertising, and would have to wait until the new fiscal year to get any. But they need a girl to work in the office and hate to wait until July 1 to fill the position.

So take that for what it's worth. In a roundabout way, we're saying there's a job open down there.

Don't know whether they planned it that way, but the city council's ruling eliminating any salary for PAUL SELM's deputy city treasurer took effect May 15, day of the recall election.

Back in his old Daly City haunts the past couple weeks to spread a little of his stylized bile in the recall group's circular which was distributed Sunday was CHARLEY WARD, publisher of a now defunct newspaper that used to get circulated out this way.

ger approach."

Appleton muttered something under his breath, then roared at Etcheverry. "You're casting aspersions. You don't tell me what's on my mind. Are these people 'dogs in the manger'?"

"I only spoke of an attitude, not of any reference to these people," answered Doelger's attorney. "Let's all be fair and examine our own conscience."

It was here that Cohn delivered his admonition to the homeowners group. "I wasn't here at the last meeting, but when I read that statement that the commission was 'stacked' it didn't set too good with me. I've been a lawyer since 1914 and never been accused of 'being stacked.' I can't imagine an attorney going into court and telling the judge he's fixed, and then asking him to hear the case. But that's what you're doing."

"If any of you know we're Doelger's dogs, step up and say so. Otherwise I don't propose to listen to any more of this."

W. E. Camp, 13, Fairway, told Cohn that the statement about the 'stacked' commission was "made in the heat of argument. It was a foolish statement and we apologized last week."

Cohn replied that "You heard the applause when these statements were made. The implication was that there was no use for you to come up here. As far as I'm concerned this commission is absolutely objective, despite these objectionable statements." He urged that "you people dis-abuse your minds of the idea that this commission is stacked."

Appleton then stated that, "I have never believed these statements, but if there are rumors, we shouldn't keep them to ourselves. I never intended any reflections."

Unanimous Denial
Commissioner Thomas Tromborg, remarking that, "I feel this R-1 was established for a good reason," moved that the property be left in that classification. Cohn seconded the motion and the commission was unanimous in denying Doelger's application.

The audience applauded vigorously, and members of the homeowners group and Appleton were profuse in their praise of the commission's action.

Camp said, "I'm sorry this 'stacked' statement got into the paper. Some of these statements here should have been edited."

The commission will recommend denial of the petition to the city council, which will consider the matter at its May 23 meeting. In other action Wednesday, the planners:

1. Approved tentative map of Westlake Unit 9.

2. Granted use permit for installation of neon signs at Davey Jones Auto Sales, 7276 Mission street, and Leed's Shoes, 68 Westlake court.

THERE'S ANOTHER ELECTION TODAY

To school district homeowners who reside in Daly City, it may be hard to believe, but there's another election on today.

In Daly City, Tuesday, citizens turned out in goodly numbers at the polls to defeat the recall movement and give the council a vote of confidence to go ahead with its program at least for the next two years.

But there are two other equally important elections today.

Two trustees will be named for the Jefferson Elementary School district and one for the high school.

In Daly City, about 56 per cent of the electorate turned out for the regular municipal election April 10, and about 36 per cent showed up at the polling places Tuesday for the recall vote.

It would be highly encouraging to see the school district vote turnout even approach the 36 per cent figure, but it seldom has in the past.

Why citizens take more interest in municipal government over school government, we fail to understand. School government is far more costly, and the quality of services it provides not only affect the citizen today, but for the life of his children who are being educated in these schools.

Actually, trustees are elected to the school districts by default—a few 100 votes can place a candidate in office who will govern the financial affairs of thousands.

School district taxes comprise the major portion of the county tax levy, and continue to rise every year.

If you fail to help elect the trustees who will govern your schools, you are being taxed without representation—and it's nobody's fault but your own.

YOUNGER GENERATION HEROICS

In a day when we read of juvenile vandalism as rowdiness as commonplace, it is encouraging to see the responsibility shown this week by two young Daly City boys, eight and nine years old.

When a fire broke out at a Knowles avenue home, the two youngsters displayed quick judgment in immediately turning in a fire alarm, an act which many adults would neglect to do in the grip of panic.

These two boys are deserving of high commendation, and it is acts like this that help adults restore their faith in the younger generation.

In yearly increments, teachers asked for the following changes:

1. Dropping various schedule steps to make a 12 step schedule in all columns.

2. Making the regular teaching credential equivalent to an A.B. for the first three columns which now stand A.B. or teaching credential, A.B. plus 15 units and A.B. plus 30 units.

Discussion Arises

This point brought forth much discussion when Appleton first questioned its advisability. Strongest argument in favor of the measure was stated by Mrs. Otha Kinsey, one of the seven teachers who started teaching many years ago when an A.B. was not required.

Mrs. Kinsey explained that although she did not have her degree when she began teaching, she now has approximately 60 units over and above the original units gained in earning her teaching credential. Even though Mrs. Kinsey now has her A.B. she is frozen in the first column of the schedule because she does not have enough units past her A.B.

With the board's approval of the recommendation, Mrs. Kinsey will be moved to the third column on the schedule.

On a motion from Appleton, board members agreed to okay this portion of the suggested schedule with the stipulation that the so-called "Masters barrier" be kept in effect in the fourth and fifth column.

Boost Quality

3. Effective the 1957-58 school year, steps 5-12 are to be dropped from the first column. Effective 1958-59, steps 9-12 are to be dropped from the second column. Teachers who have not acquired enough educational preparation to move out of a dropped section will remain frozen at the last scheduled salary received. It is hoped by the committee that teachers will be encouraged to seek additional educational benefits by this means, Schweickhardt explained.

5. Restrict placement of provisionally credentialed teachers to the first column. When the regular California credential is earned, placement is made in accordance with educational preparation and experience (up to four years).

Administrators

Following discussion on the teachers' schedule, trustees next undertook consideration of the administrative raise. In seeking the general pay increase, the salary committee suggests that the administrators be granted a shorter schedule from that used by the teachers and that a higher ratio be applied to the new schedule. Other important change recommended is that educational requirements for administrative positions be increased.

Possible change not suggested by the teachers but rather by Callan and Appleton was that the coordinators be placed below vice principals and teaching principals on the schedule. The pair argued that coordinators do not have as much responsibility as do persons in the other two positions.

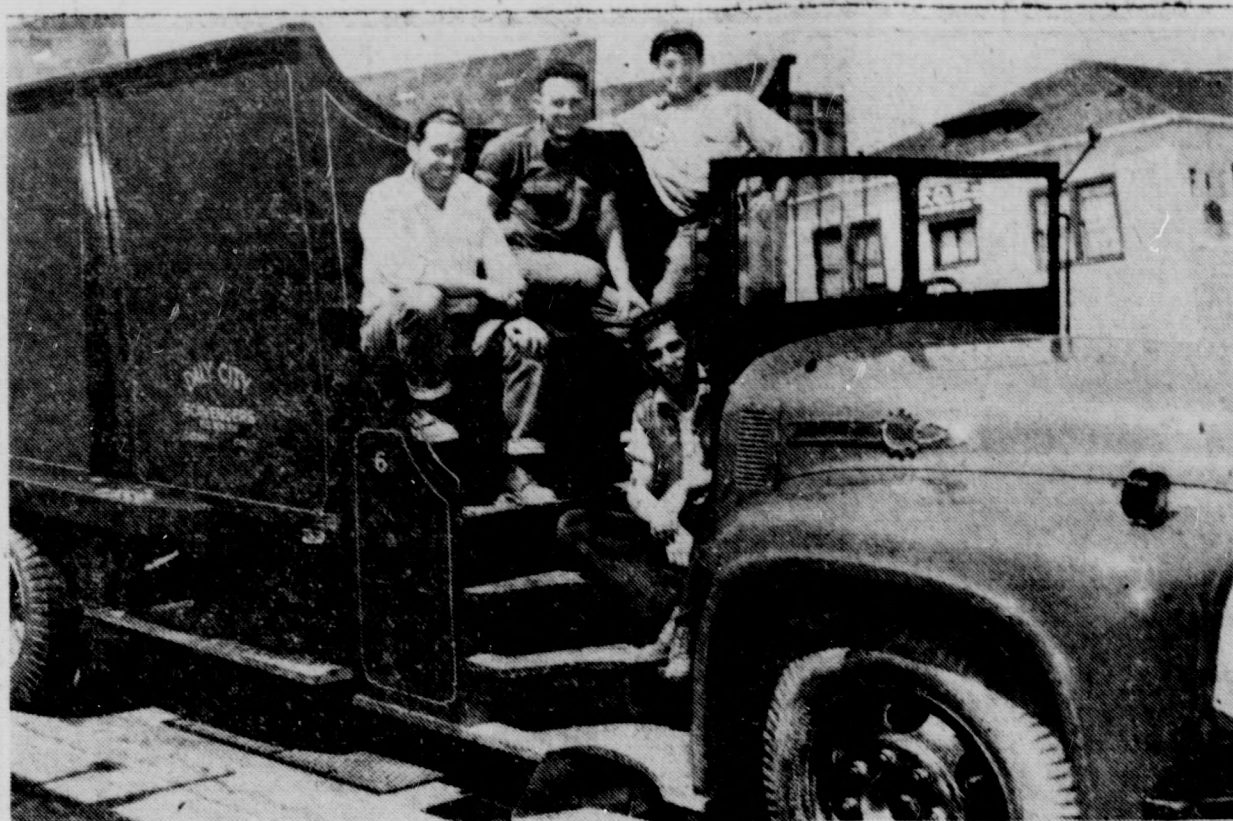

Both Mrs. Katherine Mullen and Joseph Lewkowicz asked further study on coordinator positions before any action is taken.

Local Youth Held To Answer To Superior Court On Dope Counts

William Albert Brandt, 20, 473 Knowles avenue, was held to answer to superior court on two felony narcotic charges Wednesday when he appeared in the San Francisco courtroom of Judge Theresa Underwood. Two misdemeanor counts of possession of narcotics were continued until June 29.

Brandt was arrested April 24 by state narcotics enforcement bureau agents after an investigation of several months, according to Inspector A. J. Gazzola who led the probe. Scene of the arrest was near Third and Howard where Brandt was parked in a car registered to his father. He was rolling what appeared to be a marijuana cigarette, Gazzola said.

The youth is now free on his own recognizance under the custody of his father.

Jefferson District School Board Election Set Today

3. Westlake school; No. 7, Olympia school; No. 8, Colma elementary school.

Following is a rundown on the candidates:

JEFF ELEMENTARY

THOMAS NOONAN

Thomas F. Noonan, 471 C street, Colma, is married and has one child who is six years of age and attends Colma elementary school. He is past president and presently a member of the executive board of the Sterling Park Community association.

The candidate was chairman of the recent Northgate incorporation movement and is one of the two American Red Cross first aid instructors in the Daly City-Colma area.

A high school graduate, Noonan holds a management position with the directory advertising department of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. He states that he filed for the office at the request of the League for Better Schools.

His platform is as follows: "I shall, if elected, exert all the influence I possibly can to eliminate double sessions and substandard classrooms. Equal taxation demands equal treatment for all.

"In recognition of the fact that this is a growing community I will insist that the board plan in advance for this development so that he will be able to meet needs as they arise.

"Due to the fact that the district is bonded to capacity, it is not possible to reduce taxes for many years to come; but I firmly believe that a progressive board spending the funds available wisely and judiciously can promote a vast improvement in school operation.

"It is my intention to work very closely with PTA, teacher organizations, civic groups and any citizen who is interested in the further development of our public school system."

RALPH LEWIS

Ralph Lewis, 528 B street, Colma, has lived in the Jefferson elementary school district for six years. A mortician, he and his wife Helen are the parents of two children, David, 9, who attends Jefferson elementary school, and year-old Jill.

Lewis, 32, is past chairman of the executive committee of the Sterling Park Homeowners association, is active in boy scout work and serves as a volunteer fireman.

Membership includes those in El Camino Rod and Gun club of which he is a trustee and on the executive committee, Pacific Associated Sportsmen of California and the California State Firemen's association.

Lewis was urged to run by the League for Better Schools. He states that he will try to insure the taxpayer "an honest return for his money" if elected.

JOSEPH LEWKOWITZ

Joseph Lewkowicz, 501 Vista Grande avenue, is one of two incumbent members on the Jefferson elementary school board seeking re-election. He has served as a trustee for two years.

Lewkowicz and his wife, Sarah, are the parents of seven children: Joseph Jr., 21; Charles, 19; John, 17; Victor, 16; Terry, 12; Frances, 10; and Darlene, 8.

Proprietor of the Richfield Daly City Super Service, Lewkowicz attended Polytechnic high school and was graduated from Commerce evening high school in San Francisco.

He is a charter member of the Daly City Chamber of Commerce, Gasoline Retailers association and the Bay Area Television association, and holds memberships in the Lions club; Vista Grande Aerie No. 1848, Eagles; California Musicians union No. 6; OLPH Men's club; Red Cross disaster committee and the Knights of Columbus.

In making a brief and to-the-point campaign statement, Lewkowicz said, "I'm for good schools and good teachers for our children."

MICHAEL CALLAN

Michael Callan, 755 Hillside boulevard, is presently serving as chairman of the Jefferson elementary school board and is one of the two incumbents seeking re-election.

The candidate has served as a trustee for about eight years, having first been appointed and then twice elected to the post. He has announced that he will run "on his record."

A graduate of St. Mary's college, Callan is now president of Caesar-Callan homes. He is married and is the father of four children: Michael Jr., 5; Jimmy, 3; and twins Pamela and Johnny, six months.

He is 35 years of age. Callan is a member of the Lions club and of the Knights of Columbus.

WILLIAM BECK

"I am interested in advancing the educational standards of the Jefferson elementary schools and will do everything I can to see that the quantity and quality of education is advanced," is the campaign statement of William H. Beck.

An oldtime resident of Broadmoor, Beck lives with his wife and four children at 431 89th street. The children are Janice, 13; Bill, 9; Phillip, 6; and Dan, 5. The three eldest attend public schools here, and the youngest will enter kindergarten next term.

Education includes an accounting degree from the University of Utah and a law degree from Georgetown university. He is now employed as a tax investigator.

Beck is cubmaster of pack 259 and is auditor of James L. Snell PTA. He was a member of the Snell legislative committee of a few years back and attends board meetings whenever possible. He and his wife have been members of the Snell PTA since its founding and also belonged to the Colma PTA for two years. Beck was active in the Broadmoor Property Owners association.

He filed candidacy for the position after given endorsement by the League for Better Schools.

JEFFERSON HIGH

HERMAN KALININ

Herman G. Kalinin, a painting contractor, has lived in Daly City since 1926. He and his wife Mildred are both graduates of Jefferson Union High school as are their two eldest sons, Robert and Richard. The couple's youngest son, Ronald, is now a freshman student at Jeff.

Kalinin, 44, who was an unsuccessful candidate for the school board in 1954, today issued the following platform:

"My close relationship with Jefferson dates from my first entrance through the present day attendance of my youngest boy. Quite obviously, free public education in America is represented to me by the outstanding contribution by my Alma Mater, Jefferson High.

"I am taking a positive stand when I offer myself as a candidate for the board. This district is growing rapidly. With such growth comes an increase in school problems, as well as an increase in their complexity. I want to give my time and effort to help with the solution of these ever-increasing problems.

"I have been associated with the building trades in this area the greater part of my adult life. I wish to share my knowledge and experience with my fellow taxpayers.

"I believe in free public education for all American youth, and I also believe that ALL of them are equally entitled to share the advantages supplied by our educational system.

"It's no secret that we will have over 4000 students attending high schools in this district by September, 1959. Therefore, we know even now that with the completion of Westmont High school scheduled for Fall of 1957, a third school proposed for the coastline is most necessary.

"I firmly believe that this project should be started immediately to eliminate all double sessions, which in reality are not keeping with the accepted standard of education necessary for our youth.

"I also believe that we should concentrate on building classrooms and necessary facilities, rather than "Landmarks" or "Monuments" to the community.

DONALD MILLER

At recent candidates' meetings, Donald Miller has made what he terms two "very unpolitical" statements.

First of these is: "If I should be elected to the Jefferson High school board, I will not guarantee that you will have a high school on the Coastside next year—or even two years from now."

In explanation of this statement, Miller alleges that planning of the present board of trustees has made the reality of a Coastside high school a thing of three to five years in the future.

Second so-called "unpolitical" statement by the candidate is: "If I am elected I will serve the best interests of the entire high school district, not just the interests of the coastside."

Miller, who is presently serving on the Laguna Salada elementary school board, continues that he will act for the good of the whole area just as he and the majority of other members on the coastside board have done.

The 38-year-old candidate, a resident of 909 Reina Del Mar, Vallemar, has announced that he will retain his seat on the elementary board if he is successful in the high school race because he believes that a "closer liaison" between the two bodies is needed.

Now serving as assistant contract manager of the San Francisco office of the Morris Plan company, Miller is a former newspaperman. He attended Rollins college in Florida before joining the army in 1940 for a six-year stretch. He is married and the father of two sons, Clint, 11, and Don, 6.

MRS. HELEN STOUT

Residents supporting Mrs. Helen Stout, 5 Fleetwood drive, for the position of trustee on the Jefferson Union High school board, believe that their candidate is well equipped for the job because she is a former school teacher.

Mrs. Stout, 45, is a graduate of the University of California where she majored in home economics. Although she now lists her occupation as housewife, she is a former teacher and social worker.

She has lived in Daly City for two years and is the mother of two sons, Robert, 11, and Richard, 5. She is a member of the Westlake PTA, the American Association of University Women and the Broadmoor Presbyterian church.

"I am running because I feel people should be interested in the schools, in the children and in the teachers of the children," Mrs. Stout states. She adds that she is also interested in "building the best possible schools as quickly as possible" for the district.

ARREST SF MAN ON DRUNK CHARGE HERE

A 40-year-old San Francisco man was arrested early Saturday morning after an unidentified motorist forced him to the side of Skyline boulevard and called police. Edmund L. Coveney, office manager of 500 Myra Way, San Francisco, was charged with being drunk in and about an auto.

for the complete development and progress of Daly City. I think we have pleased the majority right along."

De Bernardi—"The turnout was more than we anticipated. We knew that if the vote was at least 3500, we had a good chance to beat the recall."

"The city now will carry on in a good businesslike and expeditious manner—and clean. I actually feel the will of the people has been put forth now and from now on it is up to the city council to carry out the mandate of the people to continue the manager form of government in an economical and efficient manner."

Wilson—"I wish to thank the people for the confidence they have in me. Now is the time to forget politics and work as a unit. There are many things to do, but only in unity can we do them. Taxes can be reduced and I shall endeavor to do everything possible to accomplish these ends. I also wish to thank THE RECORD for their belief in good government and I will continue to uphold their belief."

City Treasurer Paul Selmi, who led the recall movement, declared today that, "The people voted in their favor. I'll go along with their decision."

Following is the vote at each of the city's 36 precincts:

SM COLLEGE

MRS. MARY ERICKSEN

Mrs. Mary Helena Erickson, 416 Acacia avenue, San Bruno, is a candidate for board of trustees of the College of San Mateo.

She is the wife of Horace Erickson and mother of five children, ages 10 to 17 years. She is secretary of the Chapel of the Highlands Mortuary in Millbrae.

Mrs. Erickson was born and reared in Kentucky and was graduated from Western Kentucky State Teachers college with a major in music. She resided in South San Francisco from 1939 to 1951, and in San Bruno since that time. She has been active in PTA work in South San Francisco and since coming to San Bruno, she has devoted considerable time to civic affairs, having served as a member of the Mayor's Library Study committee. Prominent in church work, she at present directs the choir of her church.

Mrs. Erickson is the only candidate who will represent the north county area where most of the population served by the college resides and where a large percentage of the tax money that supports the college originates, her supporters declare.

MRS. ELEANORE NETTLE

Endorsement for Mrs. Eleanore D. Nettle has come from the College of San Mateo Alumni association, and strong approval for her candidacy from the Burlingame-San Mateo-Hillsborough branch of the American Association of University Women, according to a press release.

Mrs. Nettle's serious interest in education has led her to make an intensive study of College of San Mateo problems. For the past two years she has been a constant observer at meetings of the board of trustees of the Junior College district. A past president of the League of Women Voters and former officer of the Seventeenth District PTA, she was recently appointed chairman of the county committee on children and youth organized at the request of Governor Goodwin J. Knight.

In Daly City Mrs. Everett S. Heagney will act as area chairman to insure a full expression of the voters on May 18. Mrs. Heagney, well known as a civic leader, is active in PTA and Girl Scout affairs. Approached today she stated, "Eleanor Nettle has proved herself again and again in public affairs. The College of San Mateo needs and deserves her help."

FOR THIRD TIME, COUNCIL REJECTS 2 A.M. DANCE HOUR

For the third time, the city council Monday night rejected request of a local tavern owner to allow dancing until 2 a.m.

John P. Trimble, owner of the Casbah, 6192 Mission street, asked that the present dance ordinance, which sets 1 a.m. as the closing time for dances, be amended to read 2 a.m.

Trimble, making his third such request to the council, claimed that the early closing forced a hardship on him, because his clientele left the premises as soon as dancing ended.

The council, not wavering from their policy set on two previous occasions, voted unanimously to deny Trimble's request.

mander of the 39th battalion, appeared at Monday's meeting along with Capt. John Creighton to speak on behalf of locating the armory here.

No State Funds
O'Sullivan pointed out that the state would not provide funds for site purchase, and explained that in the past the Guard has been given a site by the community. The state will pay for entire cost of a two-unit armory here, estimated to cost $165,000.

Pointing out that the local Guard's present facilities on Market street are inadequate, O'Sullivan told of the advantages of having a local armory. He said it would supplement civil defense and recreation facilities and would bring a $25,000 annual payroll to the city.

There Is No REBOUND

Your Dollars Away From Your Home Town

No matter whether money is lost, strayed or stolen, once it is out of your hands no longer can it be of service to you.

So it is with money spent out of town, once gone it will never return. You may figure you have saved a dime at the moment, which we doubt, but you fail to project the future and see the many dimes you may have lost in the future. Never again can it be a part of a payroll here, no longer will it be a part of taxes paid to provide SCHOOLS, streets and fire and police protection.

Too often we who received our money from local free enterprise, or from tax supported public offices feel that we have the right to spend that money in out of town stores. Have we stopped to consider the law of diminishing return on those dollars spent away from home? Those who figure statistics tell us each payroll dollar spent in a town is worth seven dollars of gross business to that city.

We urge you to buy all your needs here in Daly City so that this money will continue to act and work for you and your neighbor right here in our growing and progressive community.

Michael C. Callan

chairman of the board of trustees,

Jefferson Elementary School District

Every responsible citizen has a highly important duty to perform on Friday, May 18, 1956. On that date the voters in the Jefferson Elementary School District will go to the polls to decide who shall fill two School Trustee positions for the next three years.

A committee of Citizens, interested in having competent, capable and experienced people serve on the Board of Trustees recommend that you cast your vote for Incumbent Michael C. Callan.

Mr. Callan has served on the Board for the past eight years and is at present the Chairman of the Board. He is a man of successful accomplishments who has helped direct the affairs of the district in a businesslike efficient manner since he first took office in the year 1948.

Tremendous problems have had to be faced in the Jefferson Elementary School District since 1948. In that year there were 1800 children enrolled in the district. Today there are over 4900, or an increase of 172%.

The additional 3100 children required 100 additional classrooms to house them. To meet this need the following new school buildings were built: Garden Village, Colma K-6, Colma 7-8, Olympia, Benjamin Franklin, and additions to the Woodrow Wilson, Crocker and Jefferson Schools. Additions are now being built at Benjamin Franklin School and bids will soon be let for the Vista Grande School at Thiers and Wyandotte Streets.

To construct all this school housing has required vision and wide experience with construction work. Accompanying the building of school housing has been the more complicated process of acquiring school sites. A wide knowledge of real estate has been essential in order that the best possible school sites could be obtained and at the same time the best interest of the taxpayers was served. Having heavy real property taxes to pay himself Mr. Callan has been acutely aware of the need of careful spending.

Being the father of four children he has always worked to provide the best possible educational advantage for the youth of the community. The schools have made excellent strides in the development of a modern educational program in spite of the sometimes serious problems of man who should be retained on the Board. We are grateful to him that he has consented to seek

The Committee gives due credit to the other members of the Boards on which Mr. Callan has served. Without their help and fine cooperation few of the major achievements of the schools could have been obtained. However, Mr. Callan has been proved by the record that he is the kind of man who should be retained on the Board. We are grateful to him that he has consented to seek reelection.

YOUTH ARRESTED IN BUM CHECK COUNT

23-year-old Daly City youth, whose wife was arrested on the charge recently, is scheduled to appear in municipal court May 29 on two counts of passing bad checks.

Police picked up John Rice, 23, 133 Westlake ave., near his home Monday morning. Both he and his 21-year-old wife, Audrey, have passed several checks in all sections of the city, officers said.

Rice is now free on $150 bail.

6 Taxi Permits Approved But Nary A One Is Given

Daly City should have six more taxi cabs, the city council ruled Monday night, but the issue remained just as muddled as it was when the controversy started because the city fathers were unable to decide which company should receive the six new permits.

In a 3-2 vote, Councilmen Del Wilson and Sanford Vickers opposing, the council declared that the need for more cabs existed and that six additional cab permits should be issued. This action was taken over protest of Attorney John Putkey, representing Hilltop Cab.

But when it came time to decide who should get the permits, a parliamentary log-jam developed. After the council voted an official expression of need for more taxi service, Councilman Michael De Bernardi moved that Westlake Taxi Co., owned by George Mountanos, 757 Beechwood drive, be given the franchise, because it was "a local concern."

His motion died for lack of second.

Motion, Then Silence
Councilman Paul Hupf then moved that the second applicant, Yellow Cab Co., be granted the permits.

A half-minute interval of silence followed.

Mayor Joseph Verducci broke the stillness by offering his second.

As the session nearly developed into a public hearing all over again, Verducci called for a role call vote.

De Bernardi's decision on Yellow Cab was a decisive "no," and Hupf followed with an equally emphatic "yes."

Vickers and Wilson killed the motion with a pair of "no" votes, and Verducci followed up with an anti-climatic "yes."

Employee Protests Job Examination

An official protest of the civil service examination held recently for position of license collector was lodged with the city council Monday night by Martin Strubel, who has held the job on a temporary basis.

Strubel, who finished behind other applicants for the position, claimed the examination questions "did not pertain to the job." He asked the council for a public hearing to voice his protest.

The council agreed to take up the protest with the personnel board in a joint meeting with that group Monday night. Strubel was invited to attend the session.

A sample of the examination will be brought to the meeting.

Non-Certificated Jeff Employees Win Pay Raise

Judging from our initial column of last week the Aerie has come forward with a favorable item.

Numerous phone calls brought forward both pro and con comments which means in reality that we are making progress contacting the members.

Activities within the Aerie are just about at a standstill because of attendance at meetings. I'm still wondering why there are so few persons present. Let's look again at the items coming up within the next few weeks.

1. We are striving to get together a team to represent the Aerie for the coming softball season. If interested please call Don Giffin, 101 Hillside, PLaza 6-2189.

2. An intra-Aerie men and women bowling tournament with prizes to winners to be held on June 10.

3. Installation of officers on June 2 at Masonic temple.

4. California State Aerie convention in San Francisco on June 22, 23 and 24.

5. Then too, let's not forget the big annual picnic on August 26.

Personnel Board To Hear Employee Pay Requests June 13

City employees will meet with the personnel board June 13 to present written requests for wage adjustments and increases for the 1956-57 fiscal year.

At Wednesday's meeting the board was asked that a special meeting be set up immediately between the employees and board for the purpose of submitting wage adjustments. The personnel group decided, however, that they would rather have the proposal from the employees in writing first, after which they would confer with the workers.

The late date was set so the council may review the budget first to determine how much money could be made available for any wage increases.

In other action Wednesday, the board:

1. Discussed creating a new classification of fire equipment operator in the fire department. Status of this position would be above that of firemen, but below captain.

2. Considered creating permanent supervisory positions in each of three divisions of the recreation department—park construction and maintenance; recreation; and maintenance and operation of buildings. All the supervisors would be directly under the recreation director.

3. Announced that John Zaslavsky had placed first in the examination for meter reader.

4. Decided that candidates for job of city children's librarian could be taken from the senior librarian's eligibility list, as recommended by the library commission.

5. Discussed creating a new classification of fire equipment operator in the fire department. Status of this position would be above that of firemen, but below captain.

Local Man Misses Death When Bulldozer Upsets

George Crane of 536 C street, Colma, a bulldozer operator, escaped death Friday when his 32-ton machine upset, pinning him beneath it for 30 minutes.

Crane was working with the bulldozer on a new home development project in San Francisco when the machine spun sideways on a 50-per cent grade and rolled over. The San Francisco fire department rescue squad pulled Crane out after jacking up the bulldozer. Crane suffered bruises and a bump on the head.

Jeff Trackmen Take 6th; Martinez Ties PAL Mark

Sonny Martinez, Jefferson high school's '30s track star, tied the PAL mark of :36.8 in the 330 to brighten the Indians' day at the PAL championships Friday at Burlingame.

The Jeff varsity placed sixth behind winner Burlingame, the '30s took eighth and the '20s tied for eighth among the 13 schools competing.

Martinez tied the mark set by Jeff's Lowell Klaisner, now a varsity sprinter. Martinez also placed second in the 150, a race in which a new record of :15.2 was set.

Don Weisner, Jim Honeywell and Bill Curtis nabbed second places for the Indian varsity, which rolled up 24 points to 44 2/5 for the winners. Weisner got his place in the 120 high hurdles, Honeywell in the 440 and Curtis in the high jump.

Other scorers for the varsity were Lowell Klaisner, third in the 100; Jim Farley, third in the discus and fifth in the shot put; Al Arneson, tie for fourth in the pole vault; and the relay team which placed fifth.

Also scoring for the Jeff thirties were Andy Estigoy, who grabbed a third in the 1320, and the relay team, which took fifth.

Harvey Marston took a pair of spots for the Indian twenties. He placed third in both the 120 low hurdles and the broad jump. Dean got the other points with a fifth in the shot put.

Tomorrow (Saturday) Jeff representatives travel to Salinas for the North Coast Section, Group II meet. The North Coast meet is scheduled for May 26 at Berkeley.

Jeff Nine's Playoff Hopes Rest on 2 Carlmont Games

Deprived of the NPAL championship, Jefferson high school's varsity baseball team seeks to keep alive its Peninsula Athletic League playoff hopes in a pair of games against Carlmont today (Friday) on the local diamond and Monday at San Bruno park.

Jefferson dropped a 4-3 extra-inning decision to South San Francisco Friday on the winners' field. The win gave the Warriors the NPAL title with a 9-3 mark, and gave Jefferson a 6-4 league record.

The Indians must now win at least one of the two Scot games to remain in the playoff picture. Two wins will give Jeff second place and an automatic playoff position, while a split will throw Jeff, Capuchino and San Mateo into a three-way tie for second with 7-5 records. A three-way playoff for second would then be necessary.

The Indians lost a three-run lead in the Warrior game and lost the title right with it. Dean Prince came in from third on a balk by Ray Villmainroy to score the winning SSF run in the last of the eighth inning. Prince had singled, stolen second and gone to third on a catcher's overthrow.

The Indians opened the scoring in the second inning on three walks and an error. They tallied again in the next frame when Mike Wedlake singled across Leroy Franzola. Their final score came in the sixth on hits by Ino Patron and Bob Bailey.

The Warriors came back in their half on the sixth to score three times and tie the game, setting the stage for Prince's eighth inning heroics.

Villmainroy gave up six hits in a losing performance. Jeff got five, with Ino Patron getting two for four.

Playoffs are scheduled to start Tuesday, but in the event a second-place playoff is necessary the once-postponed event may be set back again.

With two games remaining, Barrie Haanan tops the Jefferson batters with a .316 average, 13th best in the league. He has hit safely six times in 19 trips to the plate.

Ed Leveroni tops the Indian hurlers with a perfect 2-0 mark. He has walked 13 and fanned 11 in 15 innings of play. Villmainroy has been the Jeff workhorse, however. He has pitched 41 innings, compiling a 3-3 mark while whiffing 15 and walking 11.

100 to Tee Off Thursday In D.C. Golf Tournament

Approximately one hundred local golfers will tee off Thursday at Lake Merced golf and country club in the second annual Daly City Chamber of Commerce golf tournament.

Participants may tee off at any time between 8:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m., according to Peter Markovich, C of C secretary. Entrants may make up their own foursomes if they wish to do so.

Play will be conducted in three men's flights and for the first time a special women's flight. Trophies will be awarded to low net and gross scores in each flight, while many other prizes will be given out.

Defending champ Ed Castagnetto will be on hand to defend his crown. A former city champ, Castagnetto won low honors with a 68 last year. Einar Hanson had the best low net score.

Also expected to be on hand are Ken Venturi, current city champ and Masters runner-up, and Bob Silvestri and George Studinger, a couple of more ex-city champs.

Entrance fees are $10 for men and $7 for women. This includes a day of golf and dinner in the evening, at which prizes and trophies will be awarded.

Tickets may be purchased at Kennedy Electric, 6235 Mission; Wm. Sweeney & Sons, 6800 Mission; Shannon Hardware, 6370 Mission; and Markovich's office, 6454 Mission.

Jeff's Green Grabs NCS Diving Crown

Jefferson high school's Jack Green grabbed a first place in the 130-lb. division diving event as the Indian '30s took sixth place in team scoring at the second annual North Coast Section swim championships Saturday at Santa Clara.

The Jeff lightweights tallied 14 1/2 points, for sixth spot behind team winner Carlmont with 32 points.

Dick Rasor provided the other Jeff points by taking second in the 50-yd. freestyle and tying for fourth in the 75-yd. individual medley. Rasor and Green were the only two Indian lightweight entrants.

In the race in which Rasor took second, the NCS record of :25.1 was tied by Donovan of Piedmont.

Jefferson's varsity, 1956 NPAL dual meet champ, was unable to register a single point. The NCS meet terminated the Jefferson swim season.
